ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- The case of A. B. Shaefer, proprietor of Lagrue's Restaurant, Meadow Valley street, was heard yesterday in Justice Stoutenburgh's Court. A. B. Hunt appeared for the prosecution and W. W. Bishop for the defense. The complaining wit-ness was a French cook who formerly worked for the defendant. On Sunday morning, the complainant alleges that he was assaulted and beaten by defendant, and his head and face showed that he had been roughly handled. The defense showed that Durand was drunk and unable to attend to the duties of his position and upon being expostulated with became abusive and called the defendant bad names. Defendant then put complainant out of the kitchen. Both the defendant and his second cook testified that Durand was not struck at all, and the most rational theory of the case is that Durand, being intoxica-ted, fell and hurt himself. The jury took the case after argument by counsel, and the jary failing to agree, were dis-

ANOTHER ASSAULT AND BATTERY .- Yesterday afternoon, while Justice Stoutenburgh was engaged in the case of the State vs. Schaefer, for assaulting Durand, a man named A. Peterson appeared upon the scene, and the streaks of blood which covered his head and face indicated that he had been the victim of a savage assault. A warrant was sworn out, and officer McIntyre made the arrest. The defendant in this case was - Carman, a blacksmith. Upon being made acquainted with the matter of the charge against him, he made no denial. He stated, however, that Peterson first soundly abused him, but afterwards apologized. Subsequently Peterson came to the blacksmith's shop, where Carman was at work, and began his abuse again. Finally, Carman says, to put a stop to such proceedings, he struck Peterson with a bar of iron. This is, in our esti-mation, only a technical assault, yet it will be the duty of the Court to pass sen-tence at 9 o'clock this morning.

ANOTHER HOUSE BROKEN INTO. - Night before last the house of a woman was broken into by two men, Joseph Laffuer and John Harper, one of the men kicking in the front door and the other making havor of the entrance from the rear. Both parties were arrested by officer Boyd and taken to jail. Harper was badly beaten by some one, and was so in-toxicated that he had to be taken to the lock-up on a wagon. Lafleur, who awaits the action of the Grand Jury for shooting at a woman some weeks since, was admitted to bail for this offense. The case will be tried this morning in Justice Stoutenburgh's Court, when merits of the case will be brought out. This practice of breaking in houses, no matter who the occupant may be, is highly reprehensible, and the perpetra-tor of such an offense should be vigorously dealt with.

MOUNTAIN MEADOW MASSACRE .-- Judge Wandell, of Bullionville, proposes to entertain the people of Pioche with a lecture upon the subject of the Mountain Meadow Massacre. The lecture will be duly announced through our columns, and will come off as soon as a suitable room can be procured. The Judge was the "Argus" correspondent of the Corinne Reporter, in a series of open letters to Brigham Young, in which the Massa-cre at the Mountain Meadows was the objective point; and there can be no doubt that the lecture will be of especial interest to the people of our city, in view of the fact that we are living in the immediate neighborhood of the scene of the massacre.

A CARGO OF SEWING MACHINES. - We understand that Joseph T. Mayott, General Agent of the Florence Sewing Machine Company, has a load of these popular machines on the road to Pioche. This is a want which Pioche has long felt, and an active agent who understands the entire business, can find sale for a great number of them. Mr. Mayott can supply portions of other machines; also, needles, thread, oil, etc. He is expected here in three or four weeks; and after his arrival he will be found at the Jewelry Store of L. C. Goodspeed, Main street.

A PUBLIC NECESSITY .- In view of the increased number of strangers arriving in Pioche, we are glad to learn that Mr. Pyle, of the San Jose House, contemplates adding to his establishment a large reading room, which is to be supplied with all the late papers and periodicals. His design is to make his reading room an exchange, where gentlemen can meet of an evening and discuss the situation. It will be the means of making the San Jose House the headquarters of sojourners as well as residents.

WEDDING IN HIGH LAPE.-P. C. Hyman, Esq., received, last evening, from Hon. C. W. Kendall, information that that Honorable gentleman was about to lead to the altar Miss Laura E. Arnsen. No particulars were given, but simply a handsome card bearing the names of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Kendall, to which was joined, by a delicate satin ribbon, the card of the expectant bride.

MEAT MARKETS .- Pioche is pretty well supplied with fresh meats. There are four markets, and the amount consumed daily is 8 beeves, averaging 600 he each, 30 sheep and 4 calves, besides 10 to 12 hogs per week. The quality of fresh meats sold in the markets here is not excelled in any other town in the State or on the Pacific coast.

FOR SALT LAKE.-R. A. Keyes, who has been in Pioche for several weeks as the representative of the house of Walker Bros., Salt Lake, takes leave of us this morning, to spend the holiday season at home. Mr. Keyes will probably be in Pioche again next month.

To ARRIVE To-DAY .- The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday for Pioche, who will arrive on to-day's stage: J. Werthermer, John Kroger, Fred Richmond, Geyer Thorp and wife, John Jalarap.

THE weather continues clear and cold. No snow, no rain, so far.

PUBLIC LIBRARY .- This is an institution which the people of Pioche have too long been deprived of. Many of the young men of the town, in the absence of good social opportunities, seek an asylum in places where the best morals are not cultivated and where the drain upon the purse is sometimes very great. It will cost some money to consummate the wish herein stated, but such an institution as a public library will confer a great benefit upon the town, and would be a credit to the people here to establish it. Virto the people here to establish it. Virginia City and other places already have libraries, and we hope Piocne will follow suit. If any public-spirited citizen will move in the matter we will heartily second his efforts and give the movement all the aid we can command. Who will be first to move in this matter?

ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE. - John Goodman was arrested Tuesday night at Bullionville, charged with attempting to commit rape on a little girl, the daughter of Mrs. Lamson. He was examined before Judge Goodrich yesterday morning, and committed to answer for an attempt to rape. The indignation of the people was at the boiling point, and the people was at the boiling point, and it was fortunate for the young man that he was not lynched effectually. Deputy Sheriff Turner lodged Goodman in jail last evening. Goodman is quite a young man, and the girl is about 12 years of age. His bail was fixed at $5,000, in default of which he will remain in jail till the Grand Lury activations. till the Grand Jury acts upon the case.

LADIES will be pleased in making a call at the Confectionery just opened, on Upper Main street, next to the Star Restaurant. They will find articles as nice as in San Francisco, in great variety. Cakes, Candies, Pastry and Jellies always on hand; also, Tea, Coffee and Choco-late. An assortment of Holiday gifts. Orders for families put up and attended to. Please examine and judge for your-self. d19-2t

P. O'Toole, as a bootmaker, is not behind any man in the business. His boots fit the feet with anatomical exactness, no matter how badly they may be disfigured by corns. We have put his work to a practical test, and therefore give others the benefit of our experience. Shop second door below the RECORD office.

Suspicions are entertained that trouble is brewing between two well known mining companies in this immediate neigh-borhood. So far there is considerable mystery about the affair, and reporters for the press are unable to say anything definite about it. We hope, however, that all may be settled without resort to

RAILROAD.-Work on the Pioche and Bullionville Railroad progresses satisfactorily, and every day's labor brings it nearer completion. We purpose visiting

A GENTILE TRIUMPH .- The Mormon authorities of Salt Lake have experienced a defeat at the hands of the Gentile population who inhabit the City of the Saints. Until about a year ago the butcher business was in the hands of the Church, and no one outside the holy ring was permitted to open a market. Pat Lannan determined to put the matter to a test by opening a market house in the city. He was arrested time after time, but he was persistant. Finally he obtained from a higher court an order restraining the local authorities from further interference with him until the validity of the law was proven. Finally the local authorities yielded so far as to grant licenses for market houses to all who will pay $100 a year. Thus have the Gentiles gained one triumph over the Church, IHTOLO

SEVERAL prominent citizens of Boston have organized a Greeley National Monument Association, and have already subscribed $175,000. It is proposed to raise $500,000.

Messrs. Robinson & Mighels, of the Carson Appeal, have purchased the material of the Carson Register, and the latter was last issued on the 15th.
